Special Note for Homesteaded Property Owners

If your home is rendered unihabitable due to Hurricane Irma, you need to complete the "Application to Maintain Homestead Exemption on Property Made Unihabitable by Misfortune or Calamity" \(Form MCPA-201\) (Click link or visit www.mcpafl.org)

- This allows homesteaded property owners the ability to maintain the Homestead Exemption even if they are not residing in the property due to a calamity.
- Repair or reconstruction has to commence within three (3) years of January 1st following the calamity.
- 2017 tax bills will be based on valuation as of January 1, 2017. Hurricane damage will be reflected on the 2018 Tax Roll.
